Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Robert Fisher dedicated over 26 years of service to the South Dakota Department of Transportation (SDDOT); and,

Whereas, During his career with the Department of Transportation, Robert has worked in a number of positions. Starting in the spring of 1968, he was a technician on the survey crew in Faith until he joined the Army in February 1969. He rejoined the DOT engineering office until its closure in 1974. Robert later joined the DOT maintenance crew in June 1986, and advanced to maintenance supervisor in April 1999, a position from which he will now retire; and,

Whereas, Robert has served the people of this great state well, devoting the majority of his working life to the citizens of the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Robert served his country when he was drafted into the U.S. Army in February 1969, and was honorably discharged in February 1971; and,

Whereas, His dedication to his family and faith has been exemplary, and he is trusted and respected by all who know him; and,

Whereas, Robert's on-the-job professionalism has set high standards for all employees of the Department of Transportation, and his honesty, loyalty and integrity will be missed by his friends and co-workers as he retires on July 9, 2007:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 9, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join his co-workers, family, and friends across the state in congratulating him on this well-earned retirement and wishing him a long, healthy, peaceful and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
